AUTO DRIVER CRACKS HOLD-UP MAN
HEAHS DESPERADO'S OWN WEAPON

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Central Village, June 7.—An attempted highway robbery was staged about a mile north of here early this evening and was prevented when the victim, Albert Day of Pomfret, wrenched his assailant's blackjack away and hit the robber on the head with it just as the automobile in which both were riding crashed into a wall. The holdup man escaped.

Albert Day conducts a public service motor vehicle which he operates between Putnam and Pomfret. On Wednesday evening Day was asked by a man to take him to Central Village from Putnam. The man tried to get into the back of the machine but Day insisted that he ride on the front seat. All went well until about a mile from here when the man suddenly turned to Day and drawing a revolver with one hand and a blackjack with the other, said "I want this car."

He struck Day on the head with the blackjack but with insufficient force to knock Day out. Day immediately grabbed his assailant's hand with the revolver in it and with the other hand wrenched the blackjack away. He struck the man a hard blow on the head and just as he did the machine, which was all the while traveling along at a good rate of speed, crashed into a stone wall, throwing both men out. In the mixup that followed the highwayman escaped.

Another automobile came along a few minutes later and picked up Day and took him to Sheriff Frank Willingham in Central Village where Day told his story. Later he was taken to the office of Dr. James L. Gardner where it was found he was suffering from a severe scalp wound and other cuts and bruises about the body which he received when the car crashed into the wall.

The state police at Danielson were notified of the attempted holdup and are searching the vicinity for the man. The only clue that they have to work on is a cap which was lost by the highwayman which was purchased in Danielson. Day says that as he and his passenger came through Danielson the man remarked that he had once worked in the mills there.

The police in the surrounding towns have been notified to be on the watch for a thickset man with no hat and dressed in dark clothing. The clothing was gathered by various civic organizations in the different communities, under the auspices of the Near East Relief, and will arrive shortly in time for distribution among 200,000 orphans and thousands of destitute, homeless refugees who look to America for protection from the east.

State Police Officer E. H. McDonough of the Near East Relief estimated roughly that fifty-two tons of old clothing had been contributed in these eleven centers, with Waterbury, Danbury, New Haven and New London yet to be heard from. The wealthy city of Hartford led with forty tons of clothing contributed and the remaining twelve tons were made up of contributions from other centers as follows: Colchester, 250 pounds; Norwich, 5,000 pounds; Canaan, 1,442 pounds; Niantic, 635 pounds; Danielson, 2,747 pounds; Lake Umbagog, 800 pounds; New Britain, 7,000 pounds; Meriden, 3,800 pounds; East Hampton, 200 pounds; Glastonbury, 1,000 pounds.

A similar clothing campaign last year netted about two and one-half carloads of wearing apparel, approximately half of the total shipment estimated to be credited to Connecticut this year, when Major Comfort to make one visit to Camp Devens, Mass., during the period of training of the cavalry and one visit to Fort H. G. Wright during the training of coast artillery.

3,500 POUNDS OF CLOTHING
CONTRIBUTED FROM NORWICH

Four carloads of used clothing, salvaged from thousands of homes in 12 centers of population in the state, were shipped from Hartford this week on the first leg of a journey to Armenia and adjacent territories. The clothing was gathered by various civic organizations in the different communities, under the auspices of the Near East Relief, and will arrive shortly in time for distribution among 200,000 orphans and thousands of destitute, homeless refugees who look to America for protection from the east.

EDUCATION JOURNAL COMMENTS
SUPT. GRAHAM'S REPORT

The June issue of the Journal of Education comments in an interesting way upon the annual report of the Norwich superintendent of schools, E. J. Graham. It has the following to say: "For natural center of the work of a school, the school should be an educational undertaking. The school building should be at a safe distance from noisy factories and off the main thoroughfare. Better a good walk to school than a building should be on a car line or a main automobile street. The building, too, should be oriented so that as many of the class rooms as possible shall command the east and west light. Northern light often results in eye strain."

The report has an especially good section on "University Reading," which seems to be superseding the "Project" in the attention of school people. It is suggested that the director of Americanization look up the candidates for naturalization and assist them in making out their papers.

ANNOUNCES DAUGHTER'S ENGAGEMENT TO MAJOR SMITH
Mrs. William H. Hall of South Willington, announces the engagement of her daughter, Clara Alice, to Major E. Russell Smith of Norwich, Miss Hall contributed to the late Colonel William Henry Hall, who was very prominent in state affairs for many years.

Major Smith is a graduate of the Dana Hall school at Wellesley, and attended Mrs. Kent's school of foreign study and travel in Paris during the past winter.

Major Smith is a graduate of the Norwich Free Academy, class of 1912, and of Brown University, class of 1915. He served for two years in the World war, being decorated with the French Croix de Guerre, and is now on Governor Lake's staff as military aide de camp. He is the son of Mrs. Frank H. Smith of 108 Washington street and is president of the firm of J. P. Barstow & Co. of this city.

POSTOFFICE WORKING TO SELL TREASURY CERTIFICATES
Postmaster John P. Murphy and the employees of the Norwich post office are inaugurating a campaign for the increased sale of United States Treasury certificates. These mature in five years from date of purchase and bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent. They are sold in denominations of $20, $50, and $100 with maturity values of $25, $100 and $125, respectively.

In order that the patrons may realize the value of co-operating in the movement, literature is being distributed that gives full particulars as to the investment value of the treasury certificates and why the government requires the funds from such sales.

The Norwich post office sold during the year 1918 War Saving Stamps to the amount of $289,540. There were also sold 46,778 Thrift Stamps, amounting to $11,597. A number of these stamps have been cashed at the post office since the holders receiving the purchase price with interest added to the time of payment. There are registration cards in the office for nearly $200,000 and all will be presented for payment next January. The postmaster's plan is that if the office could dispose of $100,000 of the treasury certificates during the remainder of this year, he would be able to exchange for the proceeds of the War Savings Stamps in January for Treasury certificates as those who have had them will fully realize the many advantages of investing in government securities.

Our government is most desirous for people to acquire the habit of thrift and saving and for their protection offer the safest and best security in the world and the public should realize that with security and interest equal the government should have the preference. Clubs and organizations will find these are an excellent investment for their surplus funds. The postmaster, clerks, and city and rural carriers are most interested and will be pleased to take orders for these certificates and give any desired information.

The 1918 issue of War Savings Stamps due January 1, 1925. This maturity amounts to approximately $500,000,000. The largest part of this payment can be met by the sale of the new Treasury Saving Certificate, which in itself is a fine security for the small investors of the nation.

Postmaster Murphy has received from the Boston headquarters of the first federal reserve district the following letter of commendation for the sale of treasury certificates by the Norwich post office:

Mr. John P. Murphy, Postmaster, Norwich, Conn.
Dear Mr. Murphy: Your report of sales of Treasury Savings Certificates for the month of May, showing a total of $4,320, is received, and I am more than glad to be able to congratulate you on the success of your efforts. With very few exceptions your reports have indicated more and more strongly each month the fact that the patrons of your office are becoming aware of the investment advantages offered by the United States government and are appreciating the safety and income which may be derived from these securities.

The sales of your office are beginning to show a very impressive amount of financial assistance for the government, and if the fifty odd thousand post offices of the country would make as good a showing as you do each month, the entire maturity obligation of the 1918 War Savings Stamps would easily be financed with a large amount left over to apply against the redemption of the Victory bonds which are due next May.

Easy For Thin People to Put on Flesh and Gain Weight

In one month's time EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES puts on several pounds of solid red-blooded flesh and changes your weak, run-down, nervous, tired body into a strong, vigorous, robust one or money back.

Of course, medical men are surprised and many are still unbelievers, but the fact is evident to every up-to-date pharmacist that Evans' Triple Phosphates will produce flesh without violent methods, face creams, daily massage or beauty treatments.

In order to assimilate the nourishing food this people daily take into the body and turn it into healthy, red blood corpuscles, the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first class shape, and until that is done you might just as well quit trying to put on flesh. Your system is starving for something that will turn the food you eat into healthy, strong, red-blooded flesh, and it can only be done in one way—by correcting faulty nervous digestion. One month's treatment is guaranteed to increase your weight at least several pounds and in ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things. Lee & Osgood and all good druggists have agreed to supply Evans' Triple Phosphates and guarantee it to do just what is claimed for it, or money refunded.

Even though Evans' Triple Phosphates works wonders in all cases of nervous, digestive and blood troubles, don't take it unless you really desire to put on flesh, and gain weight.

Banbury, Peoples to the number of 2,521 were sold in this city in connection with the observance of Memorial day.
